haircolor for a cause

Score a gorgeous shade of brunette like this one from Rona O'Connor by encouraging your stylist to enter Clairol's True Color from the Heart contest. PHOTO COURTESY CLAIROL PROFESSIONAL.

Go red (or blonde or brunette) this February to help support the American Heart Association's Go Red campaign to wipe out heart disease in women. Clairol Professional's "True Color from the Heart" contest has partnered with celeb stylists Jennifer J, owner of Beverly Hills' Juan Juan salon and Rona O'Connor, owner of Beverly Hills' Lukaro salon. Both have created exclusive color techniques inspired by their celebrity clients, including Debra Messing, Brooke Shields, Blake Lively, Cate Blanchett and Kate Walsh, which are available online at clairolpro.com.

The contest encourages colorists to make over their favorite client by emulating their color techniques. Evaluated on color and execution, the winner will be featured online and receive an all-expenses-paid trip to Florida, an American Express gift card and dinner with Clairol Professional Artistic Director, Danny Lapointe, and Lead Color Master, Anita Gutierrez. Plus, from July 2008 until June 2009, Clairol will donate 20% of products sold featuring the Go Red For Women logo to the cause.

try this trend: BLUNT BANGS

KATY PERRY pairs her short, slightly curvy fringe with long, loosely textured locks.

JOHN SPELLMAN/RETNA LTD.

Short, blunt bangs are popping up everywhere lately. To get the scoop on the edgy new look, we spoke to Nicholas Penna Jr. of SalonCapri in Boston, MA.

"Blunt bangs are popular right now because they add edge to hair," says Penna. "For a long time, soft hair was the trend and now there's some attitude."

They also work with virtually every face shape and are ultra low-maintenance, says Penna. "Blunt bangs add impact to your look, even when your hair is pulled into a ponytail. You can just blow out your bangs and throw your hair back."

According to Penna, this is one trend that will stand the test of time. "As it evolves, I imagine people will start to wear it in different ways, more tailored to their personality."

An easy look with attitude that works on everyone? Yes, please!

OUR FAVORITE THINGS

Celebrity Hairstyles' editors weigh in on the products we just can't live without!

MACKENZIE, ASSISTANT EDITOR

PureOlogy GlossingMist

On days when my hair has the blahs, I reach for my bottle of GlossingMist by PureOlogy. After a few spritzes, my hair is smooth and ultra-shiny, and the color looks a lot richer. GlossingMist also has a light, gorgeous leaf scent. SRP: $25, fine salons and spas.

CRYSTAL, ASSISTANT EDITOR

Pomegranate Conditioning Hair Rinse

My shower is overflowing with shampoos and conditioners, so it's rare that I'll reach for just one...until I discovered this terrific conditioner. It's virtually weightless and detangles as it moisturizes, leaving my mane soft and shiny. I also love Pomegranate anything, so I'm thrilled with its scent. SRP: $26.

MARY, EDITOR

Rene Furterer Myrrea No-Rinse Silkening Fluid

I have hair that's thick, wavy and prone to frizz, and most products designed for my tress type just don't do the trick. But just a smidgen of this anti-frizz crème works like magic. I love the fact that I can either let my hair air-dry to go curly, or blow it out when I feel like a straight style. SRP: $30; sephora.com.

JESSICA, ASSISTANT EDITOR

Redken Real Control Thermal Resist

I have incredibly thick hair that frizzes after styling, and this is the only product I've found that can control it. I apply only a dime-sized amount to damp hair and blow it dry; it comes out soft and silky, never frizzy. SRP: $16; redkensalon.com.
